WEB SUMMIT 2026 · INDI'S CONDUCTOR BRIEF

Morning: the newsroom is live with your look; vote and review before 13:00

5 November 2026, 07:25 UTC (scheduled wake; since brief 8, 17:25 UTC) · conductor@web-summit.indi

> You now have write access to the newsroom repository, and your patch is live: the newsroom is The Lisbon Wire, v0.1.12. Dinis's conductor asks you to vote on the stickers before 13:00 as a test of the whole key flow, and to review the newsroom. Your site key (WS-136) is the first step. Nothing is decided here.

live	yes	12	14:30
your newsroom patch, applied at 01:45 UTC (dcdac37)	push access to the newsroom repository (checked 07:25, nothing pushed)	agents of yours on the roster, 11 running	sticker voting closes; Dinis asks for your vote before 13:00

For you to decide

1 Add your site key, then vote on the stickers (WS-136, WS-159)
You need your key first: the vote is signed with it. Open the link or QR I sent on 4 November. Then open https://web-summit.sgit.ai/stickers/vote/ in the same browser, rank your top 10 of 23, and press Submit. Your initial should turn to 'voted' within a minute. If anything fails, say exactly what you saw. Dinis wants this before 13:00 so there is time to fix what breaks.

- [ ] now, from this morning
- [ ] before 13:00
- [ ] ask me for a fresh key link

Conductor's recommendation: Now: it also closes your WS-136, which was due at 18:00 yesterday.

2 Review the newsroom and the cards, and tell Dinis what is wrong or missing
Newsroom: the front page, one company profile, the agenda and the graph at https://web-summit.newsroom.sgit.ai/graph/. Cards: https://web-summit.sgit.ai/cards/#r4. Dinis's designer redesigned them at 04:18, so check first whether that already covers the fixes your designer agent owed by 09:00 UK time (WS-155).

- [ ] review both this morning
- [ ] newsroom first
- [ ] cards first

Conductor's recommendation: Cards first: the order for the printer on Friday depends on them.

3 Drain the sticker votes once, before 14:30

You are one of four drainers (with Angelo, Jose and Dinis). The vault key and the drain passphrase are sealed to your site key at https://web-summit.sgit.ai/stickers/vote/vault/. You need your SG/Send access token for the lock. I hold the private half of your site key, but I will not open it for you: this is yours to do.

- ☐ drain once after a few votes
- ☐ ask another drainer to
- ☐ skip

Conductor's recommendation: Drain once around 13:30, after most votes are in.

What you asked, and what was done

WHEN	YOU SAID	WHAT WAS DONE
4 Nov, 13:00 UTC	"Can you add a task to his dashboard to say that he needs to give me access to his repo"	WS-145. Dinis completed it from his cockpit at 02:06 UTC. Push access to the newsroom repository is confirmed. board/WS-145	DONE
4 Nov, 12:40 UTC	"Dinis says to refer to https://web-summit.newsroom.sgit.ai/brief/ ... action any changes"	The patch followed the pack, and newsroom@web-summit.dinis applied it. dcdac37 in the newsroom repository	DONE

1. What happened overnight

- newsroom@web-summit.dinis applied your patch (dcdac37) and then released v0.1.12: the reading meter, top-ups, the account and the vault login.
- Dinis's conductor wrote to me at 04:38 (WS-159): vote, review, drain. That is the three asks above.
- Your other agents worked through the night: messaging, factory and builder drafts (WS-15, WS-19, WS-22, WS-26, WS-27, WS-59, WS-109), a UX page in plain words for you (WS-06), a stickers page and the cards brief from your designer, your first journalist report, and an accountant agent that measures what your agents cost (WS-148).
- dashboard@web-summit.indi keeps a to-do list for you at people/indi/todo/todo.json.

2. Checked on the live newsroom at 07:25 UTC

- The front page loads as The Lisbon Wire, v0.1.12, with no em-dashes, and says it is independent of Web Summit and that the same team works on RiskMandate.
- The brief pack's own page titles run 12 to 15 words, while brief 8 sets a limit of under 12 for article titles. The gate enforces it only on articles, so nothing is broken, but it is one for Dinis to know.

3. From your mentor (19:41, yesterday)

- Your key is still waiting. Try the accountant's daily brief to see which agents are worth their run.

Next

- 13:00 stand-up (the moved one may run later; the schedule is on the stand-ups page).

- Your agents are on the roster, and which desks start for the newsroom is yours to say once Dinis confirms the split.
- 12:20: my next wake.
- Tell me 'acknowledge' when you have read briefs 1 to 9.
