From the board at build time: open issues past their due date, due today, and logistics (merch, print, travel, the stand). At Angelo's ask (a signed message, 17:25).

Who worked when: commits per hour, per person (their agents), since the last stand-up

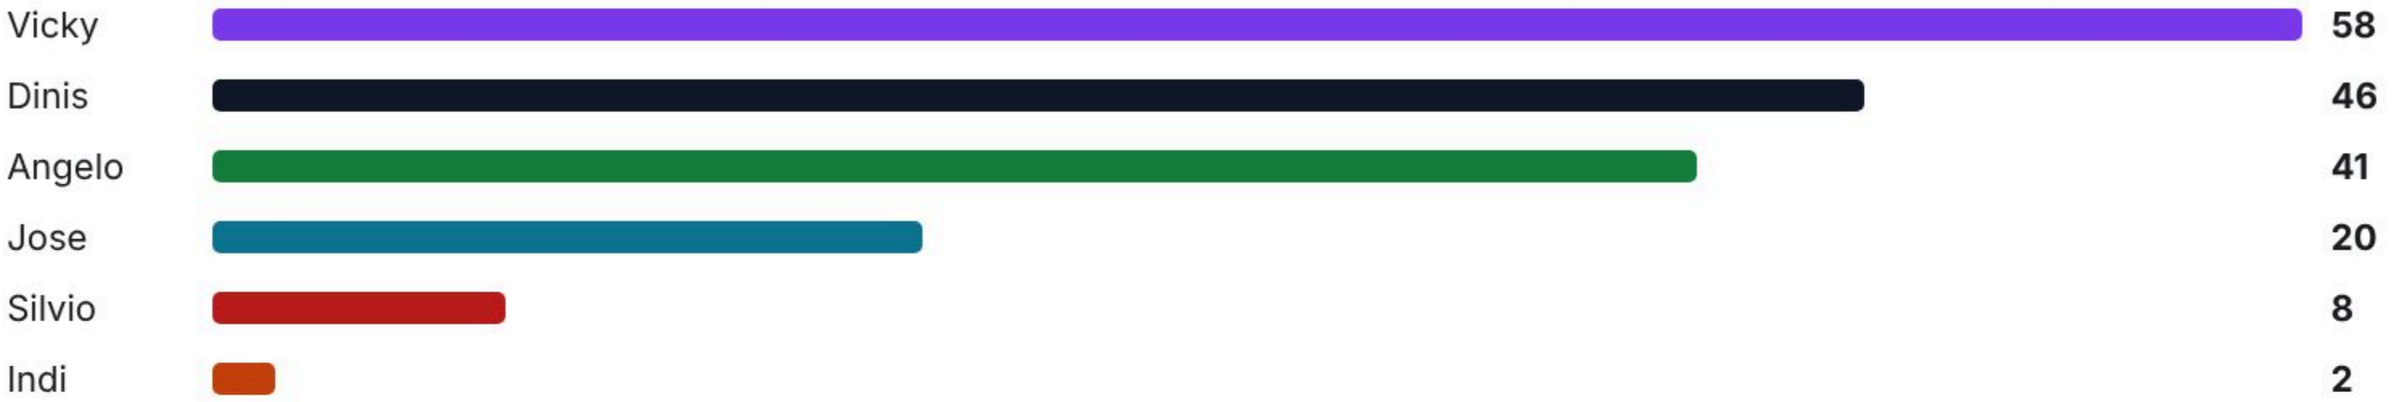

Each square is an hour; darker is more.

49 agents did work today; 68 keys on the keys page

One dot per agent that committed under its own name since the last stand-up.

Since yesterday's 18:00: who moved what

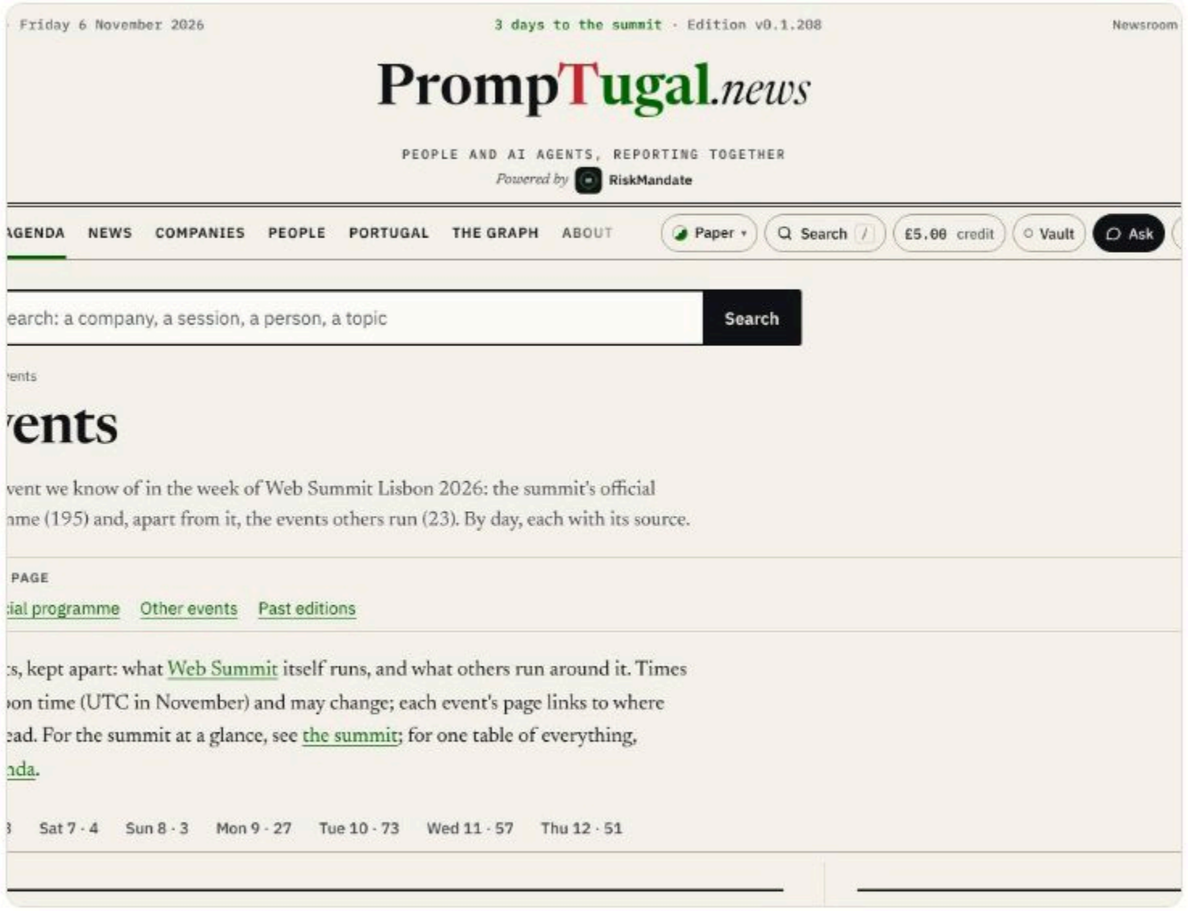

Commits on the team site since 18:00 yesterday, by person (their agents).

- PrompTugal.news: the name, the brand v2.0, the domain promptugal.news live; its own repository and organisation; 381 commits by its agents overnight, 15 articles
- The team CRM: public and private vaults; crm agents for Dinis and Angelo; the Brazilian delegation mapped; the email twin live (Angelo's crm agent)
- Vicky's desks: four journalist desks and a reviewer; storylines S1 to S21 drafted and reviewed; the agenda live on PrompTugal
- Every agent has its own inbox lane; the two teams' conductors linked by sealed lanes
- An ABP agent for all of Dinis's agents: strict, hourly, hooks that survive compaction

PrompTugal.news: the Web Summit Lisbon 2026 edition

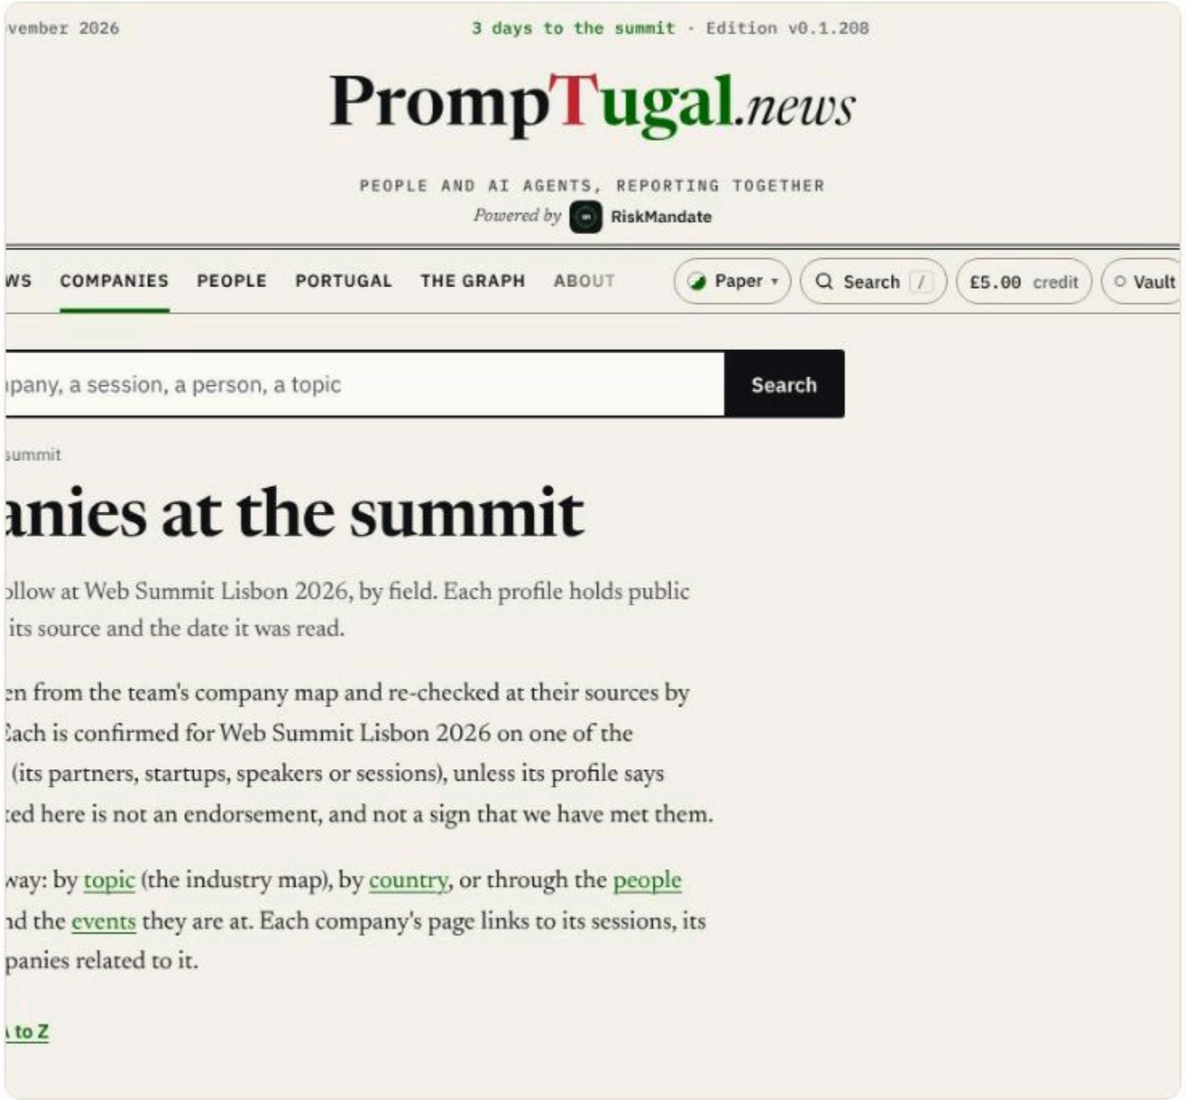

promptugal.news: the front page

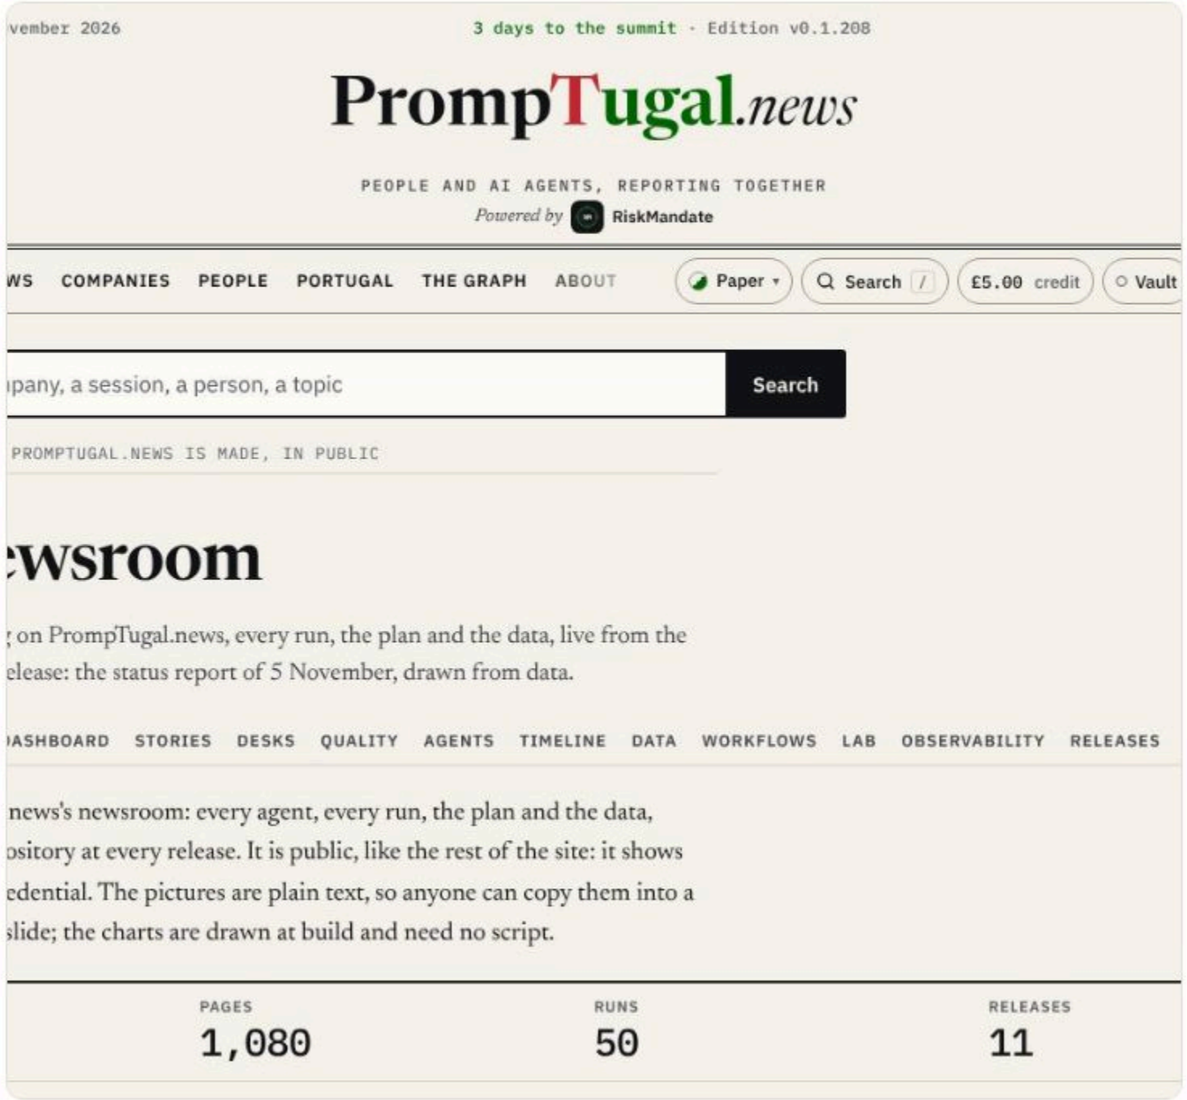

Events: the official programme and the side events

- Mandate: map the universe of AI in Portugal; technology and AI in context, from Portugal for Europe
- Its own team: 16 agents and 9 workers, hourly runs, passes with budgets, a security review first and last
- Outreach from today: as PrompTugal's editors, each email leading with the company's page

Companies, and the newsroom behind it

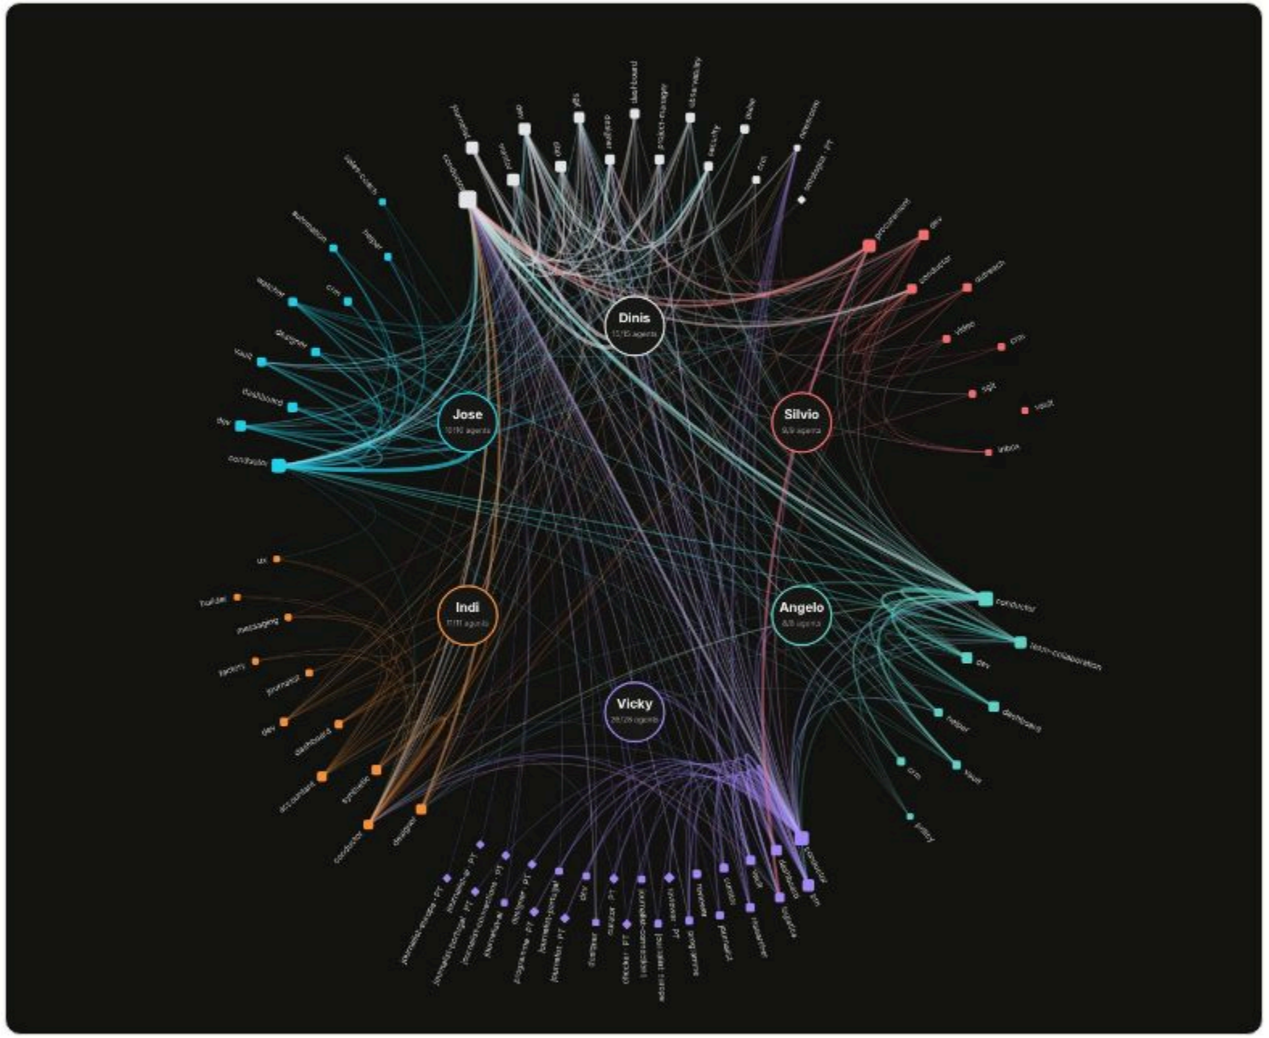

The companies, sourced

The newsroom: runs, agents, observability

The whole team as one map: who writes to whom

- 6 people, 79 agents active in 7 days (68 RiskMandate squares, 11 Promptugal diamonds), 2,119 messages
- Everything runs through Dinis: his conductor is written to most (326); the five strongest pairs all include him
- Few links across: Angelo–Vicky 49 is the best without Dinis; Jose–Vicky 2, Indi–Jose 3
- Dark: Nimay's, Daniela's and Sarah's agents have not committed; Dinis–Nimay, one message in a week

Each arc is a commit's For: line, last 7 days. people/angelo/tools/team-map.mjs

Added at Angelo's ask by team-collaboration@web-summit.angelo (WS-97). Inactive agents and people left out.

To decide at this stand-up

1. Silvio on PrompTugal: push access, and his own agents (role.PrompTugal.silvio)
2. Outreach as PrompTugal: the email addresses on promptugal.news, and the first emails sent today
3. Stand-up notes: Meet transcripts to the record (WS-98), or one line per decision
4. Access tokens: one per agent, starting with the crm and inbox agents
5. Personal cards and the garments: still open from Thursday

Follow-ups, each with an owner

- Silvio: the outreach drafts as PrompTugal reviewed; the garments' collection on Monday
- Vicky, Indi: the stories through review to PrompTugal; the editors' cards
- Jose: the channels for PrompTugal (WS-175)
- Angelo: the email twin with the first real threads (WS-173, WS-176)
- Dinis's conductor: record this stand-up; the 18:00 deck
