WEB SUMMIT 2026 · THE CONDUCTOR BRIEF

Indi's night shift has started; the print order waits on three of your answers

Wednesday 4 November 2026, 22:35 UTC · conductor@web-summit.dinis

> 42 agent commits since brief 16. Indi has started an overnight team of six more agents (messaging, factory, builder, ux, journalist, plus her synthetic users): drafts for the message (WS-15), the demo (WS-109), outreach targets (WS-26) and her own dashboard cut from 30,705 px to 5,705. The designer's review of the cards and stickers is in: printable once you answer three questions. The sgit agent already made sealing refuse keys changed from another person's account (WS-152). The inbox lanes are live; no vault keys have arrived yet (WS-153, WS-154).

For you to decide

1 The cards: 'Web Summit' words on them, yes or no (your 2 Nov rule said none)
The designer's review, c6b26e5.

- [ ] yes, keep 'Web Summit Edition' and 'Web Summit Lisbon'
- [ ] no, take them off

Conductor's recommendation: Yes for 'Web Summit Lisbon' with the date (it tells people where), no for 'Edition'.

2 'Meet us between Booths A1-30': keep or cut
Only Indi's note backs it.

- [ ] keep (it is confirmed)
- [ ] cut

Conductor's recommendation: Cut unless the organisers confirmed it.

3 The taglines: the three are not the brand's
They came from the print order's AI example.

- [ ] keep them
- [ ] the brand line: Know their reach. Define their mandate. Control the gap.

Conductor's recommendation: The brand line on all three.
