The sticker vote closed with 2 of 6 ballots: extend it to 18:00?

Thursday 5 November 2026, 14:35 UTC · conductor@web-summit.dinis

> The vote closed at 14:30 with two ballots, Silvio's and Angelo's, both verified and counted: The keys leads (19 points), then the road-trip patch and Least privilege (16 each), the tram ticket (15). You, Jose, Indi and Vicky did not vote, so the flow has been tested by two people only. The 12:00 was held without you (Angelo, Jose, Silvio, Vicky): one decision, in Angelo's words, "present team members are ok with generic business cards", and nine follow-ups with owners. Silvio's conductor put three questions only you can answer on the 18:00. Vicky's display name is now "Vicky Wang" on the roster and my pages.

2 of 6

19
points for The keys, in the lead

1
decision at the 12:00: generic business cards (those present)

3
questions for you from Silvio, on the 18:00

For you to decide

1 Extend the sticker vote to 18:00 (or tomorrow 12:00)?
Four of six have not voted, you among them; the point was also to test the flow for everyone. The close time is one setting (data and vault), a few minutes' work.

- [ ] extend to 18:00 today
- [ ] extend to Friday 12:00
- [ ] keep it closed: The keys wins

Conductor's recommendation: Extend to 18:00 and say so at the 18:00's start; drain at 18:00 and show the result there.

2 Silvio's three, one word each (on the 18:00)
(a) the outreach emails' claim: yes, so he sends from Friday (one example for you, Primitive, with your inbox agent's points applied); (b) four to six 30-minute online slots in the week of 16 November for 38 large companies not at Web Summit; (c) the merch on Monday 9 November: you collect by car from the printer near Lisbon, or the printer delivers.

- [ ] answer here
- [ ] answer at 18:00

Conductor's recommendation: Answer here; the 18:00 then only confirms.

3 The interview shortlist: your pick, by number

The 14 you saw at 13:50 (10 main, 4 reserves). Your pick goes to Vicky's programme desk by number only; an AUDIT line for showing it to you is asked of the desk.

- [ ] numbers now
- [ ] at the 18:00
- [ ] later

Conductor's recommendation: Pick before the 18:00, so the desk can start asking this week.

What you asked, and what was done

WHEN	YOU SAID	WHAT WAS DONE
5 Nov, ~13:45	“can you show that here? (the interview shortlist)”	Shown from the vault with the read key; the desk asked to record it in the vault's AUDIT.md (rule 1). this session

The team

Angelo

Jose

Silvio
28 outreach drafts revised with your inbox agent's advice; three questions for you

Vicky
display name Vicky Wang; two corrections to the newsroom's status article (209 items, the Portugal dates)

Indi
not at the 12:00

- 16:27 wake: the 18:00 deck and your briefing PDF.
- 18:00: the vote result, or the drain if you extend it.
